THE FINAL MESSENGER ﷺ

Lesson: 5

Muhammed ﷺ was now an orphan and had to return to his grandfather in Makkah. His grandfather was very fond of him and loved him like his own son.

When Muhammed ﷺ was eight years old his grandfather died. After the death of his grandfather, he was taken under the care of Abu Talib his uncle, who was happy to look after him and protect him.

The Quraish believed in Allah but they did not worship Allah alone. Muhammed ﷺ was sad at what was happening around him.

Often he would go up into the mountains alone and think about Allah, the one who created and controls everything around him. Around the Ka'bah there were many idols made of wood and stone which the Quraish worshipped. Muhammed ﷺ loved Allah and knew that these idols could not help or protect his people.

Lesson: 7

The Ka'bah was very old and a recent flood in the Makkah valley had damaged its walls. The whole tribe of the Quraish wanted to rebuild the Ka'bah.

When the walls were firmly in place, the tribes began to quarrel over which one had the right to place the Blackstone, a stone that was sent by Allah from heaven.

Before a fight could break out, the leader of one of the tribes said, "Let the first to enter the place of the Ka'bah, be the judge."

At that very moment, Muhammed ﷺ, The Al Ameen, was walking towards them, all those present there were happy to see him.

When the people told him of their problem, he came up with an excellent idea. He asked them to place the Blackstone on a piece of cloth and told the leaders among them to lift the cloth holding the four corners.

When the cloth with the stone was lifted to its correct height, Muhammed ﷺ placed the stone in its correct position and the people of all the tribes were happy.

Lesson: 9

Khadijah رضي الله عنها asked Muhammed ﷺ what had happened to him. He told her about the whole incident that happened in the cave.

Khadijah رضي الله عنها believed without doubt all that Muhammed ﷺ had told her and comforted him by saying that Allah would never disgrace him, for he was a good man who helped others.

Khadijah رضي الله عنها along with Muhammed ﷺ went to meet her cousin Waraqa bin Nawfal, a blind man with lots of knowledge about Allah and his Prophets.

Waraqa asked Muhammed ﷺ to tell him all that he had seen and heard in the Hira cave.

Muhammed ﷺ told him the whole incident and as soon as he finished telling him, Waraqa said that the Angel Jibreel عليه السلام who came to him was the same Angel that was sent by Allah to Prophet Musa عليه السلام before him.

Waraqa also said “I wish that I was younger or live until the day your people would drive you out of Makkah.”

Muhammed ﷺ was shocked on hearing Waraqa’s words and wondered how his people would drive him out of Makkah.

Not long after this meeting Waraqa died and the Angel Jibreel عليه السلام was not to be seen for some time.

THE FINAL MESSENGER ﷺ

Lesson: 10

Khadijah رضي الله عنها was the first to accept Islam. Islam is to submit to Allah alone and to worship Him alone without joining any partners with him.

Muhammed صلى الله عليه وسلم freed slave, Zaid رضي الله عنه, his best friend Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, and his cousin Ali رضي الله عنه all accepted Islam. They then called their families and friends to accept Islam.

All those who worship Allah alone and follow his Messenger Muhammed صلى الله عليه وسلم are called Muslims.

In the early days of revelation, Muhammed صلى الله عليه وسلم thought the Muslims about Allah and Islam in secret from a house owned by Al Arqam. He warned the Muslims to stay away from the Quraish who did not accept Islam and worshipped idols.

There were many idols surrounding the Ka'bah, the House of Allah that was built only for the worship of Allah by the Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام and his son Ismaeel عليه السلام.

As time went by, it was getting harder for the Muslims to keep their love for Allah and the message that Muhammed ﷺ received from Allah a secret.

One day the Angel Jibreel عليه السلام came with a message for Muhammed ﷺ, asking him to rise and warn the people of Makkah openly to worship Allah alone.

One morning, as dawn was breaking, Muhammed ﷺ stood on a nearby mountain called As Safa and called out loudly “Ya Sabahah”

All the people heard him and gathered around him at the foot of the mountain. He then asked the people “If I said that there were horsemen behind this mountain, waiting to attack, would you believe me?”

The people who gathered there replied “Yes”, for they knew without doubt that Muhammed ﷺ was Al-Ameen, the truthful and trustworthy.

Muhammed ﷺ then warned the people of a terrible punishment for those who did not worship Allah alone and did not follow him as the true Messenger and slave of Allah.

Abu Lahab, one of Muhammed ﷺ's uncles yelled in anger and said "May you perish!" rejecting the message.

Some of those who had heard Muhammed ﷺ accepted his call to Islam, which made the Polytheist leaders of the Quraish very angry.
